Vote at Improver Meeting Asks Single-Family Zone

Continuation of single-family residential zoning for both sides of Moraga Road from School Street to St. Mary's Road was favored by a 127-45 vote at a public meeting Wednesday night at Town Hall, sponsored by the Lafayette Improvement Association.

This vote will be reported to the county authorities Association President Campbell MacPhail said.

The standing vote, following extensive discussion, was on a motion by Dick Alpen that "this assembled group here tonight recommended to the Planning Commission that single family zoning be continued in the area under discussion."

HOWEVER, a subsequent motion by John Jaques for rescinding association board action in favor of multiple family zoning for the area, and a standing vote which passed Jaques' motion, were declared out of order by MacPhail.

The vote on Jacques' motion was by association members only. This motion was to the effect that "the paid-up members of the association vote to rescind the action of the Board of Directors taken on March 5."

After the vote on Jaques' motion, MacPhail read Article 5 of the association constitution, which states, "The board has the power to transact association business."

"THE BOARD," MacPhail said, "is the governing body of the association. It is selected on a geographical basis and it recognizes both the wishes and the censure of the general membership, but it is not bound, according to the constitution, to accept the dictates of the general membership."

Some 230 persons attended the meeting, called by the association in an effort to determine the sentiment of the people of Lafayette regarding the controversial Moraga Road multiple housing proposal of the county planning staff. This suggestion is one of the changes the county planning staff has proposed for the Lafayette master plan, now being developed.

Before the motions and the voting, there was discussion highlighted by a talk in favor of multiple housing rezoning by Russell Bruzzone, and a talk against it by W. H. Somerton.

BEFORE THEY SPOKE, MacPhail reviewed local master plan developments and stated that "for the past seven months most of the business of the Board of Directors has been concerned with the master plan of Lafayette."

The talks by Bruzzone and Sommerton, their rebuttal statements and the 45-minute general question-and-answer and general discussion period that followed had been scheduled by MacPhail.

Bruzzone is a director of the association and a member of its planning committee. Somerton is a member of its planning committee, a past president of the association and current president of the Planning League of Contra Costa County.

Bruzzone declared that some of the arguments raised in opposition to his desire for multiple housing are "misleading." He stressed that he merely wishes to place ranch-style, two-story multiples in the area.

HE CITED the long record of his family in serving the community, and pointed out that his grandfather had given the land where Town Hall now stands and had given School Street to the county.

He added that people in Paradise Acres Units 1 and 2 had been apprised, before they purchased their land, that the Bruzzones did not anticipate erecting single family dwellings around Town Hall.

SOMERTON, referring to the Bruzzones, said the applicant "wants anything in this area but single family dwellings" and had "previously made application for retail business, for medical-dental buildings and now for multiple."

Pointing to a map, he declared that buffer areas already exist and that the present retail business area is already protected so that the present effort is "a finger injected into a single family area."

Proximity of a school and playground can actually increase property values, whereas multiple housing decreases surrounding values, Somerton stated.

"Planning is supposed to accomplish good for the greatest number of people, and not to guarantee profit for individuals," he said.

A NEW PUBLIC hearing on Bruzzzone's and E. J. Ghiglione's application for a land use permit for medical-dental buildings adjacent to Town Hall is scheduled to be conducted by the County Planning Commission at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Mrs. A. C. Tresidder's land use application was partially approved Tuesday by the Board of Supervisors — as recommended by the Planning Commission—for enlargement of an existing doctors' office building on Moraga Road from two to three offices, with laboratory facilities.

She had asked for enlargement to five offices.

ORINDA LIBRARY FUND received a $1000 contribution from the Orinda Junior Woman's Club on Sunday. Presentation of the check was made at the library site, Orinda Highway and Irwin Way, by Mrs. Edmund Wilford (left), president of the Junior Woman's Club, and Mrs. Thomas Kling, club treasurer, to Perc S. Brown (second from right), chairman of the library fund drive. Also present were Dr. L. L. Farrar (right), chairman of the Orinda Library Board, and Odie Monahan, volunteer fund-raising consultant. — Sun photo by Mattson

Library Fund Gets $1000 From Junior Woman's Club

On Sunday, at the building site for the Orinda Library at Orinda Highway and Irvin Way, the Orinda Junior Woman's Club, represented by Mrs. Edmund Wilford, president, and Mrs. Thomas Kling, treasurer, presented that organization's check for $1000 for the Orinda Library building fund.

Dr. L. L. Farrar, chairman of the Orinda Library Board; Odie Monahan, volunteer fund-raising consultant, and Perc S. Brown, general chairman of the fund drive, were on hand to receive this contribution.

BROWN REMARKED that it was particularly appropriate that the Orinda Junior Woman's Club was "in the forefront of the various women's organizations in Orinda, since that organization from the start has helped in every way it could to assist in bringing the project of a library for Orinda to fruition."

He added that Dr. Farrar and others of the Orinda Library Board had mentioned that the members of Junior Woman's Club, despite setbacks in the past to the library project, "had never faltered in their interest and determination to help in every way possible."

BROWN ALSO stated that "such tangible evidence as this $1000 check certainly bore out all the nice statements he had heard about the Orinda Junior Woman's Club" and he again expressed, on behalf of the fund drive, "the sincere appreciation of those who are now working and others who soon will be working to bring this project to a successful conclusion."

He said that "within a relatively short time" all of the organizations in Orinda would be asked to assist in various ways in helping to raise the necessary funds to carry the campaign to a successful conclusion on schedule.

Cubs Push Their Efforts in Local Cleanup Drive

Cub Scouts created the first "miracle mile of cleanliness" in Orinda Sunday when Pack 212, led by Cubmaster Carl Dudley, cleared away trash left by thoughtless litterbugs.

Spurred on by thoughts of sodas furnished by dads, as well as by one scout's lucky find of a dollar bill, some 40 boys and a half-dozen fathers in record time cleaned the new bus shelter at the Crossroads and worked up both sides of Orinda Highway, through the Village, to the bottom of El Toyonal.

"As part of their community service, the other five Cub Scout packs in Orinda plan to take over different areas for cleanup drives," said Edward Hicks, district commissioner for the scouts.

THE COMMUNITY-WIDE cleanup campaign is headed by Mrs. Gladys Schwatka and has representatives from the Garden Club, Mothers Club, Chamber of Commerce, Lions Club, Rotary Club and scouts.

An anti-litter poster contest is well under way in the schools, said Mrs. Charles Erickson, vice-president of the Mothers Club.

The posters will be judged tomorrow morning, and the prize-winning ones will be placed in merchants' windows.

REDWOOD trash containers in the form of wishing wells placed in the business districts at the Village and the Crossroads, as well as at most of the schools, have the theme of the campaign, "A Wish to Keep Orinda Clean," lettered on their sides.

'Golden Horizons' Shown Jr. C of C

Members of the Lafayette-Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday evening saw a movie "Golden Horizon" presented by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company. The colored movie is one being used by the utility company to present to out-of-state industries the virtues of locating in California. Robert Foushee of PG&E presented the movie and gave a short talk.

Plans for the annual teen-age rodeo in this area were also discussed at the meeting. The contest to determine the safest teenage driver is scheduled for May 12 at Acalanes High School. Winners of this contest are eligible to compete in district, state and national contests depending on their test results at the various higher levels.

Also discussed was a Candidate's Night to be held in the latter part of May at which supervisorial, state assembly and senator candidates will have an opportunity to present their views to the general public. This activity will be jointly sponsored by the Jaycee group and The Sun.

Jury Unable to Determine Cause of Roemer Fire

A coroner's jury yesterday was unable to determine the cause of the fire in which Mrs. Sonya Roemer of Lafayette was fatally injured March 17, because of "lack of testimony."

The Alameda County coroner's jury stated that death was caused by third degree burns suffered by Mrs. Roemer in a garage fire. "We are unable to determine the cause of the fire because of the lack of testimony," the jury said.

The inquest was held in Alameda County because Mrs. Roemer, wife of Irving Roemer, president of the board of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District, died in Herrick Memorial Hosiptal, Berkeley, April 3.

NORMAN WILSON, sheriff's inspector, said that Robert Collins, attorney for Roemer, advised Roemer to claim constitutional rights and not testify at the hearing.

Roemer refused on the grounds that his testimony might tend to incriminate him, according to Wilson.

Others called to testify were Wilson, Harry Dutton of Lafayette, who pulled Mrs. Roemer from the fire, Elwin Maxey, assistant fire chief of the Lafayette Fire District, and Dr. Sheldon Magen.

Inspector Wilson said the case was not closed and that Roemer's refusal to testify "is no indication that he is guilty or not guilty."

"We (the fire department, sheriff's office, Board of Fire Underwriters) are going to sit down next week and study the entire case. We've collected a lot of information and we've got to take time out and diagnose all of it," Wilson said.

SHERIFF Harry A. Brown and the district attorney's office will also take an active part in the study when it is begun, he said.

Collins said that he advised Roemer not to testify because Roemer had already made three statements on what had happened March 17. He also advised Roemer to take the action because Roemer was called on first to testify.

Collins stated Wilson testified at the inquest that Mrs. Roemer on the night of March 17 said "He hit me" to Dr. Clifford L. Feiler of Lafayette. Wilson further testified that three days later Dr. Margen, a Dr. Louis and Dr. Harry Benteen were told by Mrs. Roemer her husband was not responsible for the fire. Dr. Margen was advised by his attorney, Douglas Page, not to testify at the inquest on the grounds that it was a doctor-to-patient conversation and thereby privileged, Collins said.

MAXEY TESTIFIED another fire was started in Lafayette by a jar of gasoline which had been in the sunlight, cracked and leaked down into a pilot light and exploded.

A jar which had continued gas was found in the Roemer garage in Lafayette, Maxey said.

It was also brought out at the inquest that Mrs. Roemer was a heavy smoker, according to Collins.

The Board of Fire Underwriters examined the burnt remains of Mrs. Roemer's clothing and stated at the inquest that there was no highly combustible material in or on them.

Dr. Feiler, through a spokesman, issued a "no comment" statement to The Sun late yesterday concerning Wilson's testimony.

Meurk, Ambler Enter Race for School Trustees

Carl Meurk of 52 Rheem Boulevard and Louis Ambler of 220 El Toyonal announced this week that they will seek election to the Orinda School Board May 18.

Two candidates will be elected to the five-member board for 3-year terms. Terms of Edgar B. Stewart and Ritchie C. Smith are expiring; neither had filed by midweek. Deadline for filing is 5 p.m. next Wednesday, at the county superintendent of schools' office in Martinez.

Meurk, an engineer and price negotiator with Todd Shipyards, filed his papers this week. Ambler, a director for development with the Public Housing Administration, said he would file his papers shortly.

Junior C of C Plans Safety Flare Drive

A safety flare sale campaign will be held this Saturday at several Orinda locations according to Frank Frazer, Committee Chairman for the Lafayette-Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce.

"THE FLARES which sell at three for $1.00 may be obtained in the parking areas at Lucky's, the Village Store and Black's. Frazer indicated that members of the Jaycee group will be on hand during the hours 9:00 a.m. to 6 p.m. with flares.

He stated that proceeds of the sale will be donated toward the improvement of the Orinda Library. According to Frazer a recent sale in the Lafayette area was highly successful.

"MANY BUYERS indicated that they had been wanting to have these safety flares in their vehicles but just never seemed to have gotten around to purchasing them," said Frazer. He pointed out that the flares are useful in the event of accidents on the highway at night or to protect the vehicle and its driver in the event that it's stalled or has a flat tire.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce throughout the United States, as a part of its safety campaign activities, has made available to the public these flares. Assisting Frazer are Tom Gray and Bruce Stringer.

"What ho!" said the weatherbird. "I'll have to do something about seeing that there are April showers. You know — May flowers, and all that sort of thing:"

Suiting action to words, the weatherbird chalked up .29 of an inch of rainfall for Tuesday and 1.25 inches for Wednesday, making a seven-day total of 1.54 inches and bringing the precipitation score for the weather year to date (since July 1) to 43.33 inches.

Dial Telephone Building Planned Near Pine Grove

Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company yesterday filed with the Contra Costa County Planning Commission an applicantion for a land use permit to erect a new dial telephone building on the west side of Santa Maria Way, across that road from the Pine Grove School, Orinda.

Principal County Planner H. Russell Griffith said the application, requesting a conditional use permit for a public utility building in the Residential-Agricultural zone, will probably be heard by the Board of Adjustment in Martinez May 9.

THE APPLICATION was submitted on behalf of PT&T's San Francisco office by the company's equipment planning engineer, J. P. Reilly.

According to Howard Greenhalgh, telephone company Walnut Creek area manager, PT&T plans to construct a new dial telephone building to completely replace the present dial building in Orinda Village, which he described as having reached its capacity. A new building will be needed soon, he stressed.

Cost of the new building and equipment is estimated at $1,400,000. The structure would be a one-story building, 92 by 72 feet.

"SHOULD THE COMMISSION grant the conditional use permit, construction is expected to get under way next fall, and the building would be ready for use late in 1957," Greenhalgh said.

Greenhalgh stated that the new building would be used "strictly as a dial equipment center" and that there would be "no storage of poles or construction equipment" there.

Griffith said that the land is now East Bay Municipal Utility District property, and that PT&T has an option to buy, subject to obtaining the necessary conditional use permit from the county.

THE COMPANY stated that "the area is now occupied by institutional-type buildings" and that the new phone company structure would be east of Santa Maria Catholic Church and west of the Pine Grove School.

Presumably, there would be no personnel except that necessary to maintain the dial equipment, Griffith observed.

PT&T reported that in the past 10 years the number of phones in the Orinda area has increased almost five-fold. The firm stated that at the end of 1945 there were 1149 telephones in the community; by 1950, 2800, and at present, approximately 5100.

City or Service District? Recommendation Due Soon

Recommendation as to whether action should be taken toward incorporation of Orinda or toward formation of a community services district is scheduled to be made by June.

This was decided by the Orinda Association boards at its meeting Monday night at Orinda School.

Meanwhile, the incorporation study committee, headed by Paul Pollaczek, and the community services district committee, of which Don DeWitt and Randell Cook are co-chairmen, are instructed to continue their investigations.

POLLACZEK STATED that his committe plans to present a preliminary report next month, including suggested services and the sample budget, and to issue a complete report and recommendation by the end of June.

On this committee with Pollaczek are Richard Bartle, F. B. Fernhoff, Edgar May, Kirk Miles Neill Porter, Dr. Leonard Roth, Joseph Prince, Fred Rust, Clarence Betz and Marion Baker.

Pollaczek informed the directors that his group is nearing completion of its boundary study and its survey of services in the Orinda area, and that it will soon start on an inquiry into administrative procedures, "in order to complete the information necessary to present a report as to the feasibility of incorporation at the present time."

Immediate objective of the committee, Pollaczek pointed out, is "to explore completely the possibilities, advantages and disadvantages of incorporation."

A REPORT OUTLINING possible formation of a community services district was submitted to the association board last month by DeWitt, Cook and Frederic A. Sawyer, liaison member from the board. This report was further discussed Monday night.

Agreement was reached that both comprehensive proposals — one on incorporation, the other on a community services district — will be presented to residents at the same time, and that prompt action from the people would be sought on the favored proposal.

Effort will be made to complete steps for whichever governmental step is decided upon — a city or a community services district — by the assessment roll deadline of next February so that the new governmental unit can be on the 1957-58 tax rolls.

Serving with DeWitt, Cook and Sawyer on the community services district committee are Louis Ambler, Dr. Edward Baker, Seaver Ballard, Robert Bettencourt, Ruth Conley, Dr. Ralph Hall and George Kilbourne.

Court Action Planned Against PIE Rezoning

Court acton against administrative office district rezoning of the Pine Grove will be taken by the Orinda Association if the Board of Supervisors, following its public hearing of next Thursday, upholds the County Planning Commission recommendation of such rezoning.

This was decided Monday night by the Orinda Association board meeting at Orinda School.

Pacific Intermountain Express Company has applied for administrative office district rezoning of its 10.7-acre parcel at the Pine Grove, so that it can erect a $750,000 office headquarters building at the site.

PIE'S PLANS, as well as any future businesses which would not directly serve the local populace, are opposed by the Orinda Association. The association campaign has been spearheaded by the organization's Homeowners Committee, headed by William Penn Mott Jr.

Reporting to the directors Monday night, prior to the decision to initiate court action if necessary, Mott indicated the association presentation to the supervisors would encompass the over-all problem of planning for Orinda.

Mott and Mrs. Gladys Schwatka, legal counsel for the association, are expected to be the principal spokesmen for the association at the supervisorial hearing, which is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. in the Board of Supervisors chambers at the Hall of Records, Martinez.

THE ASSOCIATION directors, headed by President Mel Arighi, went on record to "continue to seek community acquisition of the Pine Grove for future civic use."

In February the Orinda Association conducted a community-wide poll with the announced result that 3298 persons were against the proposed rezoning, and 1460 were for it.

The company conducted its own poll last June, and announced a 76 per cent vote in favor of rezoning.

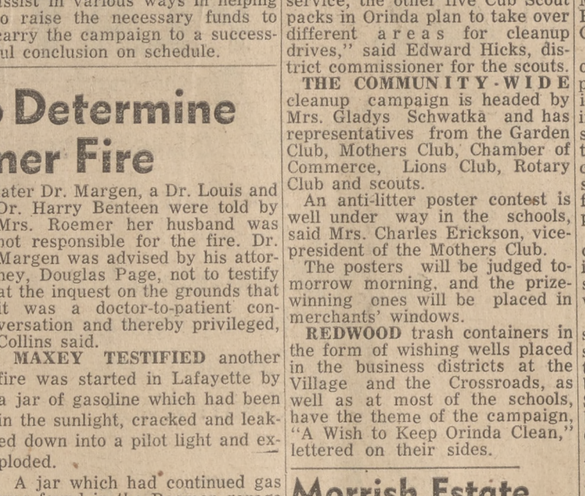

These polls, with their conflicting results, were reported to the Planning Commission at the commisson hearing February 28.

In a will written Feb. 26, 1944, he left bequests totalling $16,300, including $3000 each to his son, Kendric and daughter, Mrs. Josephine Johnson, both of Orinda.

Agreement OK'd On Library Site By Association

An agreement with the Orinda Library Board was approved by the Orinda Association board Monday night, regarding use of a parcel on Orinda Community Center land as site for a new library building.

The parcel is at Orinda Highway and Irwin Way. the agreement, drawn up by Ernest Spiegl, library board attorney, grants the library group a 99-year lease of the site at $1 per year, contingent on the conducting of library fund drive (now being organized) and the start of construction by March, 1958.

Perc S. Brown is general chairman of the library fund drive, and Dr. L. L. Farrar is library board chairman. Brown, Dr. Farar and Spiegl conferred with association directors in recent weeks.

More Discussion Scheduled for Meet Next Month

Faced with a $500,000,000 hike in county school expenditures within the forthcoming 10 years, the Contra Costa Taxpayers' Association is pursuing its intensive investigation of the feasibility of the controversial all-year school program for elementary and high schools.

The idea, subject of sentiments ranging from the calmly logical to the violently emotional, will be given a thorough going-over at a meeting next month of the association.

Headed by the Education Committee, the group will tackle the problem head-on and hope to come up with either a negative or positive answer.

Harry L. Morrison Jr., executive director of the organization, which divides its interest among all civic bodies in the hope of trimming taxes, believes one quarter of the anticipated multi-million dollar increase for schools can be lopped off through use of the year-round plan.

"USE OF EXISTING facilities to their fullest extent can save taxpayers millions of dollars," Morrison said in an interview with The Sun this week.

"Teachers will be activated fully and this, in the face of an imminent teacher shortage, is vital."

He also claims that most of the money that will potentially be saved through the plan will come from minimizing classroom construction.

The association, composed of 4000 members, has neither pushed nor detracted from the plan, which is not entirely new. Newark, N. J., tried it out from 1912 to 1931, finally discontinuing it, due to "costs and doubts of its educational soundness."

Several cities throughout the country have given the notion a whirl, including Nashville, Tenn.; Aliquippa, Pa., and Houston, Tex. All of these cities discarded year-round teaching.

REASONS FOR dropping the system ranged from complaints, that summer, which would occupy one-fourth of the four-quarter program, was no season for classrooms, to simple unpopularity with parents.

The association points out, however, that Nashville and Newark, the only cities to install the plan on a permanent basis, have hot summers.

Two additional factors weighing for and against the idea are: (1) All-year schooling represents a fundamental upheaval of established community patterns and (2) the theoretical gain in school housing poised against what an association report terms "the mundane" complications of repairs, schedules, vacations and the inertia of habit.

The taxpayers' group hopes to come up with a positive or negative reply to its own question at the May meeting.

CHAIRMAN of the education committee, which will guide the work of the meet, is Frank Cayting, assisted by committee members Claude Vickery, Wayne Henderson, Jack Fischer and William Ross.

A negative finding would end the study, says the association. A positive finding, on the other hand, would launch a specific program toward informing the public about doubts it may or may not be concerned with.

Essentially, year-round schooling would require students to attend three quarters and to use the fourth as vacation period. The number of students on vacation would be spread evenly over the four quarters.

Definite date for the May confab has not been determined, but, according to the association, neither heat of summer nor chill of winter is a deterrent to the plan.

Fire Department Heads Hold Meet

Commissioner Zach Montgomery of the Orinda Fire District and Chief Shirley Peakes of the Lafayette Fire District met last week with the Acalanes Taxpayers' Committee to discuss problems confronting Fire Districts in the Acalanes area.

Consolidation, boundary changes, and county wide salary scales were among the subjects discussed.

MONTGOMERY TOLD the committee that a county-wide association of fire commissioners has been established which is considering these and other problems. It is hoped, he said, that the exchange of ideas between the different Fire Districts in the County will result in more efficient and lower cost fire protection to each individual community.

The Acalanes Taxpayers' Committee is a committee of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association. Members present included, Ted Barcelon, Chairman, Richard Emory, John Kennedy, Ed Rowland, and Mrs. Vivian Hicks, Lafayette, and Edward Mannon, Orinda, chairman of the Acalanes Fire District Committee.

'Girl Scouts in Action' Show Will Be Tomorrow

Girl Scouts in the Diablo Valley will exhibit their skills to the public tomorrow from 3 to 8 p.m. at Acalanes High School.

"Girl Scouts in Action" has become an annual event. It is staged with an idea of showng the public, especially those who are not in Girl Scouting just what Girl Scouts do, and to thank the public for their support by contributions through United Crusade funds.

THIS YEAR'S EVENT will have some 105 troops participating. It is divided into four fields of interest.

The first field is called "Citizens Here and Abroad." Here you will see the girls making tortillas, doing the dances of other countries, learning languages.

The second field, "Fun and Exploration in the Out-of-Doors" finds children studying wildlife, learning the habitats of our native animals, how to use a gun, and other useful outdoor information. There will be exhibits of how to make a buddy burner, first aid and artificial respiration.

THE THIRD FIELD, "Adventuring in the Arts" will have girls displaying their knowledge of leathercraft, needlework, ceramics, dancing and knitting. There will be a display of doll houses that the girls have made and will donate to crippled children.

The fourth field, "You and Your Home," encompasses the greatest interest because here they learn home nursing, first aid, sewing, cooking, safety outdoor and in the home, gifts for Korean children and table setting.

The Senior Girl Scouts will demonstrate their work as hospital aides and will sell hot dogs and other food.

The Juliette Low Memorial Fund is deposited at this time. Each girl donates a penny for each of her years.

THE PUBLIC IS invited. The Diablo Valley Area Girl Scout Council points out that, although the girls are very proud of their participation in creating a good civic future, there is no contest between one troop and another and no awards are given.

The event is under the supervision of Mrs. Albert Fleming of Lafayette, who has recently moved here from the Southland, where she was active in Girl Scout circles.

PROGRAM SCHEDULE is as follows:

3 p.m.—Flag Ceremony.
Greeting by the president of Diablo Valley Girl Scouts, Mrs. J. Orr Kyle.
Juliette Low Memorial.
Community Sing led by Doris Dorris.
3:45—All exhibits open. Plays and skits on cafeteria stage.
Puppet show, main gym and stage.
5—Folk dancing and tumbling.
6—Plays resumed in cafeteria.
7:45—Sing around campfire on stage in boys' gym.
8—Taps.

Concerts, Finale Sunday

The San Francisco Boys' Chorus, under the direction of Madi Bacon, will be the fourth and final concert in the present Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts season, to be held Sunday, at 2:30 at Las Lomas High School.

The Boys' Chorus will have its concert group of 34 voices, ages 8 to 14, with boy soloists Jim Ursino, C. B. Peterson, Alan Zimmerman, Dick Watson, Marsh McCandless, Bill Fraser, and adult soloist, Paul Jamaica, bass.

THEY HAVE been directed since they were organized by Madi Bacon, eight years ago, to sing the children's parts for the San Francisco Opera Association.

Bacon, is a former Dean of Music at Roosevelt College in Chicago, and is now director of the University of California Extension Chorus.

Here is the program for Sunday:

Part One: Sing We and Chant it by Thomas Morley; Cantate Domino by Hans Leo Hassler; San Francisco Boys Chorus; Lo! Country Sports by Thomas Weelkes; Quando Corpus by Giavanni Pergolesi; The Ensemble Singers; Alleluia by Wolfgang Mozart; The Lord Is My Shepherd by Franz Shubert; Chorus.

Special District Policies Proposed By Taxpayers

A study on important deficiencies in special district government in Contra Costa county was released today by the Taxpayers' Association, with recommendations.

The study covered over 102 special purpose districts established for more than 25 purposes. The findings and recommendations of the study were as follows: "Financial procedures of many special districts appear to be lax. Many districts apparently follow neither acceptable budgeting nor accounting practices, and there is conflict between the taxation sections of some special district laws and the general property tax laws.

"RECOMMENDATION: That conflict between special district laws and the general statutes on property tax be eliminated, and that levies of all special districts be set by the respective boards of county supervisors only after a detailed budget, prepared and adopted in conformance with the county government budget act, is submitted, and an annual audit, covering the financial transactions of the preceding year, is also submitted.

"There are a number of laws on the same subject, some of which it may be possible to consolidate.

"Recommendation: That study into the possibility of consolidating a number of special district laws be continued.

"There is no uniform method of forming special districts, regardless of their purpose.

"Recommendation: That all special districts be formed by a petition addressed to the Board of Supervisors, which shall hold a hearing on the merits of the proposal and, if it finds the petitions valid, shall call a special election for voting on the formation.

"THE ELIGIBILITY requirements for voting and participating in the formation of special districts vary greatly.

Recommendation: That a uniform eligibility requirement for participation in the formation of special districts and special district elections be considered in all future special district acts.

"A more flexible method of consolidating existing districts, coupled with statutory permission for several districts to finance, construct and operate joint facilities, might be helpful.

The legal and engineering costs of preparing information for the establishment of special purpose districts are at present borne by the county at considerable expense, whether the district is finally created or not.

Candidates for Supervisor Speak In Open Meeting

More than 75 persons attended the Second District Candidates-for-supervisor night Monday at the Green Valley School, under the sponsorship of the Danville Democrats.

David Comstock, the first speaker, attacked the land speculators citing the East Bay Municipal Utility District, as well as private parties, who have been helped by the present Board of Supervisors, according to his statement.

Mrs. Eunice Koller stressed the need for schools and the growth of Contra Costa County.

EDWARD LARMER spoke on the need for more highway development, and mentioned the committee work he had done for the Chamber of Commerce.

Harold Mutnick said that a supervisor should be his district's advocate in Martinez, rather than make political promises only.

Mel Neilson spoke about his community service work in many organizations, and favored establishment of a county yacht harbor on the Sacramento River.

CLARENCE WALLACE, a retired Marine Corps general officer, was critical of the county laws still on the books from "the horse and buggy days," and favored re-organization of the county government, and charter.

William Zion said that a supervisor should make it his business to become acquainted with local problems, that if he were elected, an efficiency survey of county government, and the budgeting unit in the county administrator's office, would save about $400,000 per year in costs.

Wednesday Target Date For Cancer Crusaders

Volunteers for the American Cancer Society who will conduct a door-to-door residential drive in Contra Costa Wednesday from 7 to 9 p.m., have made final preparations for their intensive campaign.

The one-night drive, part of the month-long campaign which began April 2 with donations from business, clubs, indstry and organizations, is the climax of the Contra Costa schedule and will bring volunteers into action. Purpose of the drive is to raise funds for the research, education and service programs of the society.

RICHARD SANDERS, president of the Contra Costa County Branch of the Cancer Society made a plea to residents who had received letters asking of their contributions to mail them as soon as possible.

"To make it easier to send in contributions, we have made arrangements with local postoffices to forward all mail addressed simply CANCER, care of the local postmaster," he said.

Each area chairman of the residential drive has accepted a community quota for the evening and expectations are that these quotas will be met or exceeded if each worker will make all calls scheduled. With individual workers assigned about 15 homes each, it is believed that most will complete the calls within an hour — or two, at the most.

THE VOLUNTEER workers who will be making the neighborhood rounds will leave informational literature about cancer at every door as they make their calls for contributions. The campaign slogan is "Fight Cancer with a Checkup and a Check."

Area chairmen for the one-day drive report that recruitment is nearly complete in most areas.

Mrs. Donald MacVean, Walnut Creek, reports the following additional volunteers: Mesdames L. H. McPherson, Clarence Carlos, E. J. Martin, Edward McCarthy, Marion Rowley, Charles B. Hahn, Dick Snyder, Serafine Rossi Jr., W. F. Quandt, Will C. Hall, W. C. Rusk, George Conte, James Ford, Henry Evans, George Tichnor, R. M. Klitgaard, Wray Bennett, A. C. Dippo, Everett Gains, Richard Ringwood, H. F. Boston, Owen L. Williams, John Enright, and R. G. Todoroff.

Ben Peterson Heads Campaign for Doyle

Ben Peterson, Brentwood real estate and insurances broker — and a high school companion of Don Doyle in the mid-1930's — this week became county chairman of the Don Doyle for Assemblyman campaign committee.

Peterson promised an active campaign in which Doyle himself will canvass homes throughout the county. Doyle will begin personal campaigning next week, when he returns from the AFL Operating Engineers Union convention in Chicago. He is a delegate to that conclave.

Peterson asked for reelection of Doyle to a third term as state assemblyman in the June 5 primary election.

Canyon Conservation Meet Asks By-Pass of Redwoods

Conservationists, scientists and representatives of organizations in the Bay Area, met at the Canyon School Sunday to consider the threat of the proposed Shepherd Canyon Freeway to the Canyon redwoods and the possiblities of the area for a future public park.

Sponsored by the Nature Conservancy, a national organization devoted to preserving "living museums of primeval America," the meeting was arranged by William Drake and Mrs. Gladys Shally of Canyon, with Drake acting as chairman.

The Canyon Community Club was host to the meeting, while the Campfire Girls served refreshments and the Boy Scouts directed traffic.

CANYON SCHOOL students had on display exhibits of plants, wildlife and rocks of the area.

Following the meeting, a hike was made along the crest of Pine Ridge to observe the rare knobcone pine and the wealth of native plants and shrubs which are concentrated there.

The meeting unanimously urged public support of a freeway route which would by-pass the valley, and eventual inclusion of as much of the area as possible in a park because of its high value as a wildlife refuge, botanical preserve and scenic recreational site.

MEMBERS OF the group will cooperate in further studies to determine how these aims can best be achieved.

Attending were representatives from the Sierra Club, the Federated Garden Clubs, the Mt. Diablo Aubudon Society, the Contra Costa County Women's Planning Council, the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council, the Ann Loucks Chapter, D.A.R.; the Nature Conservancy, the Canyon Community Club and property owners in the area.

CONSERVATION of the redwoods and wildlife was the theme of a conference at Canyon School Sunday, called by the Canyon Community Club. The meeting was one of a series in the nation, under general sponsorship of Nature Conservancy. Admiring some of natures' beauty in the area were, left to right, William Drake, chairman of the meeting; Norma Warner, Gladys Shally, Dennis Shally, Larry Bryan and Mrs. Drake. Dennis and Larry are members of Boy Scout Troop 212.

Attend Church Sunday

Community

Two distinguished speakers will be the guests of the Orinda Community Church in the near future. Dr. William David, superintendent of the Northern California Conference of Congregational Churches, will address the World Service Committee meeting Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Livingstone Room of the church.

On Monday, April 23, Dr. Robert W. Spike is speaking on the responsibility of the laity for evangelism to an areawide meeting of church officials and interested laymen, sponsored by the Conference Evangelism Committee, held in the Fellowship Hall at 8 p.m.

Dr. Spike is the new director of the Department of Evangelism of the Board of Home Missions, who is making a tour of the West at this time. The Diaconate will entertain at coffee after the formal session is concluded.

Equally important to all members and friends of the Orinda Community Church are the monthly church nights, planned for April on Wednesday night at 6:30.

Younger members of the families attending are also welcomed and special entertainment provided for them during the programs which follow the potluck dinners. Reservations may be made by calling either Julie Allen, CL 4-5351, or Barbara Williams, CL 4-4249.

Two full worship services are held each Sunday morning at 9:30 and at 11. The regular church school hours coincide with the early service but a nursery and classes through the third grade are offered at 11 also, so that parents may attend church while their little ones are cared for in Sunday School.

Special music is prepared by the Senior Choir of the Music Department for each service, in addition to the organ music provided by the church organist, Dan Popovich.

The Rev. Chauncey E. Blossom will preach on "Accepting Yourself" at both services this Sunday morning.

Episcopal

Services of Holy Communion at 8 a.m. and Morning Prayer at 9:30 and 11 o'clock will be held on Sunday at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, 12 Via Las Cruces, Orinda. The service at 11 o'clock will include the Ante-Communion, and the sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Albert Lucas, vicar.

At the 9:30 family service, during which church school will meet, a study and discussion session will replace the sermon and will be led by Mr. Lucas. Music at this service will be provided by the Junior Choir, which will sing "For the Beauty of the Earth" by Kocher as an offertory anthem.

The Senior Choir will sing at the 11 o'clock service, under the direction of Donald Aird, choir director and organist. Their anthem during the offertory will be "God So Loved the World" by Stainer.

Nursery care for pre-kindergarten children will be provided in the basement of the vicarage during the 11 o'clock service.

The Young People's Fellowship will meet in the undercroft of the church at 7 p.m.

On Wednesday, the regular midweek celebration of Holy Communion at 10 a.m. will be followed by a study group. Nursery care is available during this service.

On Friday, April 20, the Seabury Club, couples organization, will hear Canon Charles Guilbert, director of Christian Education for the Diocese of California, when they meet at 8 p.m. in the undercroft of the church. Refreshments will be served, and those wishing to attend school should call Mrs. Arthur Jensen, CLifford 4-3103, so she can know how many to expect.

Community

The Rev. Chester R. Lewis will deliver the fifth sermon of the Bible series on "Amos, An Introduction to the Modern Era," at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services Sunday at Lafayette Community Methodist Church.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship meets at 7 p.m. Sunday evening.

Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock the Friendship Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet at the home of Mrs. John McBride, 467 Helen Avenue, when Mrs. Mike Roberts will speak on the "Purpose and Goal of the Woman's Society of Christian Service."

Thursday at 7 p.m. the Youth Choir rehearsal will be held, to be followed at 8 p.m. by the Adult Choir rehearsal.

Presbyterian

"Paradise Lost and Won," second in a series on "Christ and the Home," will be the subject of the sermon by the Rev. W. Carl Thomas, pastor of the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church on Sunday at the Park Theatre, and the Sacrament of Holy Communion will be administered. There will be duplicate services at 9:30 and 11 a.m.

Church School classes are held at 9:30 and 11 a.m. at the Lafayette Town Hall. Nursery for both classes is at the home of Mrs. Ellen Brians, 1030 Brown Avenue, Lafayette.

You are urged to publicize our services among your neighbors and friends and invite them to visit with us if they do not have another church home.

We have a good variety of books at our new church library located at the home of Mrs. Bert Everson, 1133 Thompson Road, Lafayette, AT 3-2654. There is a list provided at church every Sunday morning. If you wish any book from this list, please call Mrs. Everson and she will bring it to the Park Theatre on the following Sunday.

There will be a Missionary Interest Group and pot luck supper held for Fred Passler who is in Yucatan on Friday evening, April 13 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moog, 51 Crest View Drive, Orinda at 7 p.m.

St. Mary's Heights potluck will be held Friday evening, April 13 at 7 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Teach, 3389 Sweet Drive, Lafayette.

Lutheran

"Knowledge and Wisdom" will be the sermon theme of the Rev. Merle O. Tollefson, Pastor of Our Savior's Lutheran Church, 1035 Carol Lane, Lafayette, at the 8:15 and 11 a.m. services Sunday. The Sunday School will meet at 9:30 a.m., for grades 4 through high school. There is also an Adult Bible Class at this hour. Preschoolers through grade 3 meet at 11 a.m.

Sunday evening at 7 p.m. the Junior and Senior Lutheran Leaguers will meet at the home of Julie Sanderson, 971 Hawthorn Drive, Lafayette. The Rev. Nenan, a pastor from South India who is studying for his Master's and Doctor's degrees at Berkeley will address the group. The Adult Inquiry class will meet at the church at 8 p.m.

Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. the Mothers' Club will have their "Father's Night." The theme for the evening will be Japanese, and decorations and menu will carry out the theme. Mrs. Henry Swab is food chairman, and Mrs. Robert Sanderson is chairman of decorations.

Covenant

"Our Heavenly Home" will be the topic for Pastor G. Raymond White at 11 a.m. worship services Sunday at the Lafayette Covenant Church.

He will call attention to the will of J. Pierpont Morgan, which said, in part, "I commit my soul into the hands of my Savior in full confidence that having redeemed it and washed it in his most precious blood, He will present it faultless before the throne of my Heavenly Father."

Hi Leagues will meet at 6 p.m. for their weekly discussion. At 7 p.m., song services will be accompanied by the orchestra and Pastor White will speak on "Three Essentials for the Christian Life."

Lutheran

"Following the Good Shepherd" is the topic for the sermon to be preached by the Rev. Edward R. Andersen at the 8 and 11 a.m. services at the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church in Orinda, Sunday.

Sunday School meets from 9:30 until 10:30, with worship services led by E. S. Heckathorn and classes for the different age levels and the adults.

VACATIONERS

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Falconer, of Rheem Blvd., have just returned from a six weeks vacation in Vancouver, British Columbia. Falconer doubled in brass by making a survey as representative of Standard Oil.

The Falconers report that they saw many points of interest, while Falconer especially enjoyed the game of curling, a shuffleboard-type game played on ice. He says he did very well.

Mrs. Juanita Tarpley, mother of John W. Tarpley of Rheem Boulevard, has returned from vacationing in Nashville, Tenn. En route back, she stopped at Greenville, Miss., to visit her son, Dr. H. E. Tarpley and family.

MORE VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Bell, Hopedale, Mass., parents of Mrs. Dudley Davis, 253 Rheem Boulevard have arrived by plane for a two week visit. This is their first time in California and they plan on a lot of sightseeing.

Moraga Casual Dress Shop, co-owned by Marion Devin and Belma Rolley, opened its doors for business last Saturday.

Right next door is the Design Center, which also opened its door for business recently and which is owned by Mr. Rolley. Official openings for both businesses are scheduled for the near future.

RENO RESIDENTS

Alice and "Curly" Busan have left for Reno to establish residence. This is not for the usual reasons, however. The Busans plan to live there. They formerly lived on Camino Pablo.

A combination personal and baby shower for Ruby Tagliero was held Sunday night. Hostesses were Jo Rogers and Mardel Carr, with 17 friends attending. The affair was held on Camino Pablo and there were lots of gifts and much eating.

Moraga's first baby, to the best of my knowledge, was delivered to Mrs. Lloyd J. Lund, 263 Rheem Boulevard, March 26. It was a girl, Sandra, 6 lbs., 3½ ounces. It was the Lunds' third child.

IMPORTANT ELECTION

New officers were elected at the April 3 meeting of the Moraga Mothers' Club.

Officers elected were Barbara Bose, president; Betty Bollinger, vice president; Doris Davis, recording secretary; Mardel Carr, corresponding secretary, and Jo Rogers, treasurer.

An affirmative vote was taken to retain the Mothers Club for another year.

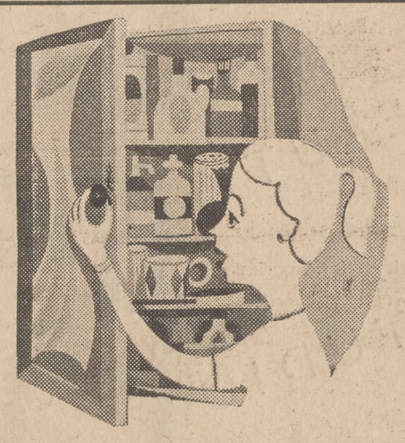

A brand new phonograph and radio has been presented to the Moraga Elementary School by the Mothers' Club, part of the year's project for civic service.

Garden Lecture Heard by Women Of Santa Maria

Robert Babcock, one of the landscape architects chosen to design this year's Oakland Garden Show, spoke to the members of Santa Maria Women's Club at thir regular meeting on March 3.

Babcock explained that this year's show will be held in September, in conjunction with the Home Show, under the title of "Autumn Floral Harvest," and will replace the Spring Garden Show.

He showed colored slides of past garden shows, as well as those of private residences, and discussed individual pardening problems with club members.

The Santa Maria Club will hold a "May Time" dessert bridge and canasta party May 24 at the parish hall. Mrs. Al Scollard, general chairman for this event, announced that reservations may be made with Mrs. William Gleason, ticket chairman, at CL 4-3140.

Troop No. 5

The Pottery Patrol of Girl Scout Troop No. 5 of Orinda walked away with Second Place Honors at the 2nd Annual Ceramic Show of Central California at the Exposition Building in Oakland last week.

The hand-made pieces of animal design were underglazed and glazed by troop members Cathy Cline, Penelope Curtis, Claire Friedman, Carol Harmon, Judy Hopkins and Sylvia Howes, under the leadership of Mrs. A. K. Harmon.

County Third in Bay Area Debts

Contra Costa County has the third highest government indebtedness of the nine Bay Area counties according to a report by the Taxpayers Association.

The $13,296,699 debt in the county is only surpassed by the $179,839,200 debt in San Francisco City and County and the $14,155,037 debt of San Mateo County.

Contra Costa also ranks sixth in indebtnedness throughout the state, surpassed by Los Angeles, Orange and Ventura Counties, and others described, the report said.

"It would appear as if those counties where the greatest increase in population has ocurred have been required to go into debt the most, although San Diego County, with 770,000 persons has only a debt of about $11½ millions and Sacramento with 377,000 has a $2.8 million debt." authors revealed.

"In any case, none of the counties in the state are near their debt limitations at present which is to the credit of the county officials and taxpayers of California, for their caution and consideration in this matter," they concluded.

Christian Science

That the scientific unity of God and man was taught by Christ Jesus will be set forth at services Sunday at Churches of Christ, Scientist, 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust tSreet, Walnut Creek.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Doctrine of Atonement" is the Golden Text from John 3:17): "God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."

The following passage will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Atonement is the exemplification of man's unity with God, whereby man reflects divine Truth, Life and Love. Jesus of Nazareth taught and demonstrated man's oneness with the Father and for this we owe him endless homage" (18:1-5).

Readings from the Bible will include the following (Luke 1:68): "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people."

THIRSTY BATTERY

If the battery in your car takes an excessive amount of water it is likely that the generator charging rate is too high, says the California State Automobile Association. Overcharging can damage the battery if it is not corrected. If your battery is uncommonly "thirsty." have it checked promptly.

Educators Demand Raise In Pre-College Education

More student participation and mutual upgrading of standards in college and high school was the demand of the panel discussion reviewing the "Lowering of Higher Education" at Saint Mary's College last Friday.

Representatives from 14 colleges and universities from Los Angeles and Central California, with high school principals and members of Boards of Education from Northern California, attended a Symposium on Curriculum—the first of its kind ever held. Two hundred delegates were present and participated in the open forum.

ACCORDING TO Robert E. Dewey, Associate Professor of Philosophy at Dartmouth College, "There must be a shift of responsibility for getting an education to the student." This is one of the means of meeting the increased school population. More independent work, writing and reading, is necessary on the part of the student.

There are two prevailing pessimistic errors on the lowering of higher education and it may be brought about by the growing school population. One is the student-teacher ratio, which works against personal contact, the other the arbitrary raising of admission requirements, Dewey claimed.

RALPH. W. TYLER, former dean, Division of the Social Sciences, University of Chicago and now the Director of the Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences at Palo Alto said, "There is nothing undemocratic in demanding standards in education. Setting of standards does not involve an elite."

Joseph Pieper, Professor of Philosophy, University of Munster and visiting lecturer for the spring quarter at Stanford University believes high school standards should be improved with requirements that correspond to the academic and professional task that must be fulfilled. "There is nothing undemocratic about this," Pieper said. "There must be mutual upgrading in high school and college."

Otto Bird, Director, General Program of Liberal Education at Notre Dame, said, "Our industrial society has forced the teacher to take the responsibility for educating the student. This is an extreme that has to be corrected."

Edgar A. Poe, principal of the Pittsburg High School, explained that, "Our students wll do the academic study that you wish them to do provided that the colleges set the standards."

Brother Albert, F.S.C., vice-president, St. Mary's College, made introductory remarks at the first session of the panel on Monday.

SPEAKERS WHO APPEARED at the national symposium, "The Lowering of Higher Education," at St. Mary's College last Friday were, standing left to right, Brother S. Robert, F.S.C., professor of philosophy, St. Mary's College; Frank Keegan, co-chairman and associate director of new curriculum program, St. Marys College; Dr. Josef Pieper, professor of philosophy, Munster University, Germany; seated, left to right, Dr. Ralph W. Tyler, Behavorial Sicences Center, Palo Alto; Dr. Robert E. Dewey, professor of philosophy, Dartmouth College; Dr. Otto Bird, director of liberal arts program, University of Notre Dame.

County Payrolls Increased 60% In Five Years

Since 1950 the county has increased the number of its employees by almost 60 per cent to a total of 1956 persons as of the end of 1955.

The greatest number (398) were employed at the County Hospital, while the Public Works Department ran a close second with 380 employees.

Social Service with 164; the sheriff 133; Public Health 129; and Probation were the other departments directing over 100 persons.

The library with 97, the assessor with 75, and building maintenance 65 were the only other departments employing over 50 people; although the auditor-controller with 46, flood control 40, and the county clerk 37, were close to that mark.

The other 22 offices or departments of the county employed the remaining 274.

It should be noted that during this same period the population has increased less than 20 per cent.

GOP Rally Hears Baldwin, Doyle

More than three hundred people attended the Republican rally Wednesday evening, April 4, at th Fair Oaks School, Concord.

Speeches by United States Congressman John Baldwin and Assemblyman Donald Doyle highlighted the rally. Baldwin reviewed Republican achievements on a national level and Doyle spoke on California legislation.

Jim Moriarty, master of ceremonies, read a telegram from United States Senator Thomas Kuchel was was unable to attend the rally. Jack Pedder, Lafayette, candidate for state senator, was represented by Robert Pedder who briefly outlined Pedder's campaign plans.

Republican Rally Honors Baldwin, Doyle at Fair Oaks

Programs undertaken by area Republican representatives in Washington, D.C., and in Sacramento were reviewed April 4 in a Republican rally honoring Rep. John F. Baldwin R., Martinez, and Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle, Lafayette.

Four hundred Baldwin and Doyle supporters from Contra Costa at the Fair Oaks School heard a report from the two candidates for re-election.

Baldwin, who serves on the Highway and Flood Control Subcommittees of the House of Representatives, reviewed his work towards a flood control survey of the Walnut Creek watershed, securing emergency funds to rebuild flood-damaged levees in the lower Sacramento River Delta region, and his support of legislation to conserve water.

"CALIFORNIA stands to gain more than any other state in the union from the proposed expanded Federal Interstate Highway Bill," Baldwin noted, adding, "Highway 40, over the Sierras, and Highway 21 in our Sixth Congressional District will become four-lane, divided highways within the 13-year period covered by the bill.

Doyle, who was introduced by Dave Calfee, of Richmond, his compaign co-chairman, noted that California now has the highest employment record in the state's history.

James Moriarty, Orinda, Contra Costa Republican Central Committee chairman, as master of ceremonies, also introduced Bob Pedder of Lafayette, Republican candidate for State Senator.

GENERAL CHAIRMEN of the rally, sponsored by all Republican groups of Contra Costa, were Mrs. Frank Young, Walnut Creek, Mrs. Thomas Barrows, Orinda, and Mrs. Hal Bates, Concord.

Others participating in planning the buffet supper and rally were Mesdames James Irwin Jr., Donald Krotz, James Hill, Wayne Bentley, Bruce Andersen, all of Orinda; Howard Richman and C. R. Hayden, Concord; Walter Moffatt, Brentwood; Mr. and Mrs. William Dickey, Antioch; Joseph Thomas and Mrs. H. C. Chapin, Pittsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Howard, Walnut Creek; Mrs. Robert J. Evans, Lafayette; Mrs. Mac Osborn, Danville; Jack Warnecke, Rodeo; Mrs. John Ball, Crockett; John Ogden, Martinez; Jack Gillan, Pleasant Hill; Mrs. F. R. Devin, Moraga; Clarkson White Port Chicago; Mrs. Harold Sproul, Kensington; and Bob Aga, Richmond.

Besides Being Fine Hobby, Folk Dancing's Real Tonic

By RUTH McKIRAHAN

Perhaps you read about the opportunity to enter a beginners' folk dance class at Acalanes High School. The class met for the first time Monday night in the girls' gym.

Since the tuition fee is based on the number attending, the more enrolled the less the fee. The class is taught by Reva and Glenn Ward, excellent instructors for many years in this area.

Because I am an enthusiastic folk dancer I cannot say enough in its favor.

BESIDES BEING a wonderful hobby, folk dancing has therapeutic values. It is a wonderful tonic for tired nerves and helps one forget his worries and cares.

It is absolutely impossible to think of your problems while engrossed in the learning of a new dance. The very act of group participation, in this case folk dancing, is stimulating.

Self-expression through dancing goes back as far as the beginning of time. Dancing to the fascinating music of other countries and America's, too, is indeed an exhilarating antidote for either a tired body or mind.

FOLK DANCERS are a very friendly group, and many new and lasting friendships have been made within a folk dance group.

There are no age restrictions. You need only attend a festival to discover the variety of ages. It can be quite a family affair. School children, quite young couples, mothers and fathers, grandmothers and grandfathers participate.

For those of you who may have hesitated to try folk dancing because you have never learned to dance or perhaps because you haven't danced for years, there is no need to feel shy.

WHEN YOU JOIN a class, all of the others present are experiencing the same feeling as you. Just remember, no one is watching you. He can't because he's too busy watching himself. It's just impossible to see how somebody else looks and follow the instructor's teachings at the same time

Very soon you will find yourself relaxing and any feelings of self-consciousness will disappear.

THE QUESTION of what to wear is easily solved.

For the ladies, full cotton skirts and cotton blouses. For those who love bright colors and exciting prints, there is no limit. Encase your feet in comfortable flats.

The men may wear slacks and cotton sport shirts. The ladies love seersucksr shirts, and you know why. Sandals or any shoes that are not too heavy to get around in comfortably are worn by the men.

Assistant Health Officer Needed

The responsibilities include assisting the County Health Officer with the administration and supervision of the County Health Department; organizing, directing and coordinating the public health medical programs; acting for the County Health Officer in his absence.

Requirements for the position include license to practice as a physician and surgeon in California and four years of full time public health medical experience with administrative responsibilities. County residence is waived for this examination.

Is 12-Month School Year Feasible?

Widespread interest is centered on the current study by the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association as to the feasibility of "the all-year school."

(Elsewhere in this issue is a news report on the current situation.)

Entitled "The All-Year School: A Critical Review," the 16-page report explores the pros and cons of the idea of having the school year for elementary and high schools run a full 12 months, with vacation periods staggered for different groups of students.

A key consideration in this controversial matter is, as the association points out, "the fact . . . that the all-year plan provides a theoretical gain in school housing of 33 per cent, against which must be poised the mundane complications of repairs, school bus schedules, administrative vacations and the inertia of habit."

As laymen, it seems to us on The Sun that at first glance the idea of a 12-month school year doesn't appear feasible — if for no other reason than that apparently it has never been successful anywhere, for grammar and high schools.

Perhaps one of the main reasons for this lack of its success is the unpopularity and inconvenience of a staggered-vacation arrangement. Not only is the traditional concept of summer vacations for children "at stake," but, also, there is the entire problem of arranging family vacation trips.

However, the Taxpayers' Association points out:

"The fact that the all-year school has been tried and abandoned in several communities, while it has been investigated but dropped in others, does not necessarily mean that Contra Costa County is particularly obstinate in pursuing the subject on its own.

"After all, the distinguishing characteristic of the American public school is its individuality, based on local control and its adaptation to local needs."

The association wisely advises thorough study of "the merits of the plan in terms of cost and administration." That is the immediate objective of the Education Committee.

What They Say

Sol and Shade Is Question

Summer sometimes gets pretty warm in Contra Costa County and this thought makes your roving reporter wonder if local citizens think there are enough trees in general, and shade trees in particular, to take care of Ol' Sol.

Our question is, "Do you think there are enough shade trees near homes to provide sufficient comfort and beauty during the spring and summer?"

And the answer? To wit:

Mrs. T. W. Field of 431 Lenox Court, Pleasant Hill, said, "We have the usual tree in the front yards and some others in the garden, but we could use a lot more of them. That will come probably when we get to landscaping."

MRS. ALLEN Madison of 75 Alberta Terrace, Walnut Creek, observed that, "We have plenty of Walnut trees about, along with Locust, Acacia, Redwood and others we planted. On the whole, we have enough trees for shade and looks."

A determined program which began about five years ago has provided trees for the Indian Valley area, according to Mr. Royal Treat of 354 Marshall Drive, Walnut Creek.

"When we first came here it was a field, but now there are probably 200 homes, with about six or seven trees per home."

"IT IS A shame that they must tear down those big Oak trees for freeways near our homes," declared Mrs. Paul Benson of 87 Monye Cresta Boulevard, Pleasant Hill.

"When we moved into our area, it was a bare hill, but neighbors have planted various types, like Curley Willows and fruit trees," she added.

MRS. ERNEST C. DREWS, 166 Canon Drive, Orinda:

"We are very well satisfied with our shade trees. There are several redwoods and pines on our lot and around the lot next door. They provide excellent comfort and beauty. In fact, there are enough redwoods that we expect to use some of them in a few years for lumber for another house."

MRS. JOSEPH C. ELDRIGE, 38 California Avenue, Orinda:

"We could certainly do with a few more trees around our house. We just moved from Stanton Avenue and still receive benefit from our old trees. It's just across the street. But I hope we get a few trees around our house pretty soon."

FIGHT CANCER WITH A CHECKUP AND A CHECK

'Check, Checkup' Will Halt Greatest Killer

Traditionally, spring is a time for cleaning the attic, limbering up the garden tools and tuning up the car. The American Cancer Society points out that it can also be an appropriate time to check up on one's health.

This week volunteers of the society's Contra Costa County Branch are engaged in a county-wide campaign to impress upon the public the value of a regular physical examination as a safeguard against cancer. Volunteers will call on their neighbors Wednesday for their gifts and to leave life-saving literature.

Their slogan is "Fight Cancer with a Check-up and a Check." And they are as intent on putting across the first half of that message as they are the last. They point out that many more lives can be saved through earlier detection of the disease. An annual physical examination is a protection that everyone needs.

The American Cancer Society volunteers are to be commended for their determination to spread a life-saving gospel of health, and it is to be hoped that their message will reach receptive minds. It also is to be hoped that their appeal for funds will receive generous local support.

Fire District Expenses Reach $1.3 Millions

Fire districts topped the list of all other special districts in Contra Costa County with a collection and expenditure of over $1.3 million in tax monies for fire services last year, according to a Taxpayers Association report.

Part of the reason for this huge expense is because of the number of fire districts, 23, and because only five of the eleven cities in the county maintain their own fire departments; but a part may also be due to a lack of uniform policy or supervision from the county in the administration of fire protection services, it said.

The Alameda County Board of Supervisors recently enacted a resolution for a uniform procedure for the operation and management of each of the eight fire districts under its control. Some of the provisions, it asserted, might aid in increasing economy among the 17 districts under the Board of Supervisor's control in this county.

Among the provisions were:

1. Shortening the terms of appointment of fire commissioners to two years, thus providing for fresh viewpoints in the conduct of district affairs.

2. Providing that publication shall be made of the time and place of all commission meetings, and that they shall meet at least quarterly.

3. Instructing that budgets shall be prepared by the commissions and sent to the County Administrator who reviews them and recommends them to the Supervisors. The Administrator also controls the district budgets at all times.

4. Establishing uniform rules and regulations for the administration of personnel, purchasing, keeping of records, insurance, etc.

5. Providing that all fire district accounting systems shall be prescribed and audited by the County Auditor.

Letters to The Editor

SOUTHERN CROSSING

Dear Editor:

As a portion of a statement for the AFL Political Education League (written) I noted as follows:

"Senator George Miller Jr. was quoted in city papers of Wednesday, March 28, as saying, 'I note no major opposition to the Southern Crossing from constituents in Contra Costa County.'

"This end of the county is tremendously interested in the SF-Bridge problem, and all feel that Doyle and Masterson acted wisely in their attempt to delay the Southern Crossing bill until all the facts on engineering and traffic are available.

"In the words of Senator Arthur Breed, 'The people should know what they are getting, what the costs will actually be and that the crossing and approaches will provide a complete system'."

JACK PEDDER

Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

Neighbors have the same headaches

People are often surprised to learn that problems their community faces are frequently the very same as those confronting their neighboring towns.

For example, the problem of bulging school enrollments is a problem of every community in this Land of Suburbia, whether it be Pleasant Hill or Lafayette. Another universal headache is zoning—whether it be Alamo, Walnut Creek or Orinda.

Incorporation? This question faces the people of Pleasant Hill, Alamo, Lafayette and Orinda. Annexation is another factor.

Water? Good water at reasonable rates is causing concern in Pleasant Hill, unincorporated areas of Walnut Creek and Alamo.

This list could go on and on—sewers, flood control and drainage, traffic safety on neighborhood streets, need for new backroads, increasing taxes, improved commuting, teen-age recreation, parks and playgrounds, better representation and liaison with county government, etc.

Come, get together

All this points to a need for even more cooperation among our Central Contra Costa communities. For some years, Joe McFarland of Pleasant Hill and this writer have advocated formation of a federation of major improvement associations and chambers of commerce in Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek, Alamo, Danville, Saranap-Sun Valley-Newell areas, Lafayette, Moraga-Canyon and Orinda. Members from the cities of Walnut Creek and Concord should be represented.

At first this could be a loose, informal organization, whose primary purpose is to exchange information and cooperate whenever possible. Perhaps it would never go beyond a "discussion group"—but that would be the most valuable part of the idea anyway.

No elaborate organization is needed; merely each president or his representative could meet once a month.

If The Sun can be of assistance to start this venture, please let us know.

Question and answer

Question: Who are the most fortunate children (and adults) in Contra Costa County?

Answer: Those who live within the Gregory Gardens Water District. Why?

Because they are getting the tremendous benefits of fluoridated water. While the California Water Service and East Bay Municipal Utility District have stubbornly refused to give us these benefits, this small, public-owned district some time ago took a post card poll of its "stockholders" and then started serving fluoridated water.

What does fluoridation mean to Gregory Gardens children? And what would it mean to your children? Take a look at the 10-year study recently completed. Here is the story, as reported by the Associated Press:

Here's proof positive

NEW YORK—(A.P.)—A New York health official says a 10-year comparison test in two New York communities showed that fluoridation of drinking water helps reduce tooth decay and loss in children without causing any physical harm.

Results of the test were made public by Dr. Herman E. Hilleboe, New York State Health Commissioner, who described fluoridation as "safe and effective."

Such fluoridation means adding one part of sodium fluoride to drinking water for every million parts of water. It has been a controversial subject in health and scientific circles.

See for yourself

The town of Newburgh, N. Y., 10 years ago began adding sodium fluoride to its public water while nearby Kingston did not. The towns have a population of some 30,000 each.

Children in Newburgh aged 6 to 9 have 58 per cent less tooth decay and missing teeth than youngsters in the same age group in Kingston.

The 10 to 12 age group in Newburgh has 52 to 53 per cent less decay while children aged 13 to 14 show 48 per cent. Sixteen-year-olds in Newburgh, whose first permanent molars were erupting when fluoridation began, have 41 per cent less tooth decay than their Kingston counterparts.

No ill effects

There was no evidence that fluoridated water contributed to gum inflation or gingivitis; there was no effect on children's growth, weight and height; no changes in their bones, in blood composition, urinalysis, vision or hearing.

Hilleboe said 1,115 communities in the United States are now fluoridating water for more than 22,000,000 persons.

Opposition to fluoridation, Hilleboe said, "stems from several sources, chiefly among food faddists, cultists, misguided and misinformed persons who are ignorant of the scientific facts on the ingestion of water fluorides, and strange as it may seem, even among a few physicians and dentists."

And that's the story.

'Prince Valiant' Originals Here

Six panels of the original "Prince Valiant" drawings by Hal Foster are showing at St. Mary's Keith Gallery until June 10.

According to viewers, the works which represent the climbing of a mountain by Prince Arn, are noble and inspirational. The drawings are in the tradition of German, French and Japanese masters recently shown at the gallery.

Foster, born in Halifax, Nova scotia in 1892, came to America at an early age and among the major events of his youth was a 100-mile bicycle trip to Chicago.

Having arrived here in 1921, he studied at Academy of Fine Arts, Chicago Academy and the Chicago Art Institute. He was naturalized in 1933 and soon his water colors and oils won national awards. "Prince Valiant," the unfunny comic strip which won him fame, was syndicated in 1937 by King Features.

To maintain authenticity in the drawings, he has revisited his homeland several times, as well as Norway, Sweden and England. He has taken hundreds of photographs for reference material.

He lives in Redding, Conn., where his youngest son, Arthur, assists him in the color work of the panels. In San Francisco during his earlier years, he studied under Thomas C. Leighton. He is now studying at the Art Students' League in New York.

GET ACQUAINTED

There's been a lot of changes in automobiles in the past five years. Power has gone up in every make and such things as power brakes and power steering are more common now. If you're getting a new car take time to get acquainted with it before you start driving in heavy traffic. Be sure you know the relative position of the throttle and brake pedal as well as the other controls.

Meet the Bennetts who set up housekeeping in Santa Rosa in 1936

20 YEARS AGO—when Duane and Eileen Bennett were married, they had 6 appliances: stove, hot plate, water heater, toaster, iron, radio.

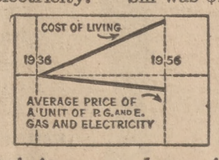

TODAY—their inviting home boasts 25 appliances: range, refrigerator, freezer, washing machine, dryer, toaster, mixer, waffle iron, deep fryer, 2 electric exhaust fans, garbage disposer, electric clock, 2 TV sets, 2 irons, sewing machine, vacuum cleaner, electric blanket, hair dryer, electric heater, 2 water heaters, furnace.

Today they buy $19 worth of gas and electricity for $15

...for the average unit cost is far less than it was in 1936

Most Californians — like the Bennetts — own many more appliances today than twenty years ago. And all these extra appliances use additional gas and electricity. Fact is, if you're like the average California family, you're using three times as much gas and electricity these days! As a result, your bill may be higher. But it's far lower than it would have been 20 years ago.

That's because P. G. and E. now charges far less per unit of gas and electricity. Proof? A month or so ago, the Bennetts' bill was $14.79. In 1936 the same amount of gas and electricity would have cost them $19.19. You're probably making similar savings yourself. Can you think of any other prices that are lower today than 20 years ago? No wonder we say . . .

Gas and Electricity are cheap in California!

About Our Happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

All kinds of swim suits

Since we've been dealing with the superlatives of spring 1956, have you heard about the International Swim Suit Show where the suit modeled by Mrs. David Fink was labeled "Daisy Doll" and was made of embroidered organdy over sateen, with a spare overskirt of organdy lestwise you become confused and end up in a pub instead of a pool?

ROOS BROS., the momentary owners of these creations confided helpfully that this one was really not for active sports. Another model at the Laurel Jr. annual dance at Sequoia Country Club was Mrs. Fern Wilson looking mighty swish in a black and white check taffeta with beach bag to match. Doris Thompson wowed 'em in white nylon Chantilly style lace (these are still bathing suits mind you) and Mrs. H. B. Truman turned up in a rainbow confection topped by one of those Italian cone hats three feet high.

Well it was the best party ever and the following couples were hosts for cocktails beforehand—the Joseph Longacres Jr., Leslie Rogers, Fern Wilsons, C. C. Heisters, Bert Smiths Jr., Rodney Saylors, David Harpers, David Finks, Edward Craigs, Charles Curriers, Lloyd Kindalls Jr., Robert Gilfillans, Robert Jeffreys, Robert Wiebens and Edward Mannons.

New arrivals in town—Dr. and Mrs. William Chew have bought the Lee Banister home on Camino Lenada—son Billy is going to Pine Grove and daughter Ann is living at the Pi Beta Phi house at the University of California.

Returnees from the Hawaiian Islands—the Phipps Rasmussens who had a wonderful time, also the Aubrey Sweets from the Caribbean.

Busy airport this afternoon with the Perc Browns, Roger Starks, Edgar Stewarts, Marshall Shapiros, Joseph Conleys and Peter Zischkes scanning the skys for a plane bringing house guests to them all—Dartmouth boys who were arriving for the Glee Club Concert Saturday night at the Berkeley High School Theater at 8:30.

Unless you have been locked up someplace for a couple of years you know that these boys are mighty good and have been featured on the Ed Sullivan and Perry Como shows and Cinerama Holiday.

Tickets at the box office—$2.50 adults and $1.00 students. Don't miss it—goodness only knows when they will be back.

Newly Married Mandevillés Feted at Ruth Drive, PH

Mrs. Ted Poehler and Mrs. Joseph Hipp of Lois Court, Gregory Gardens, presented a four-tiered wedding cake to newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Mandeville, 1572 Ruth Drive, upon their return from a short honeymoon trip to Lake Tahoe.

Neighbors gathered at the Poehler home, 161 Lois Court, and with Ted Poehler playing a trumpet, and others blowing horns and bells, they noisily marched to the Ruth Drive address. The cake adorned with the traditional bride and groom figures, bells and horseshoes, was cut by the newlyweds.

The young couple were presented with gifts. Joining in the festivities were Messrs. and Mesdames Hal Pierce, Joseph Hipp, Elmer Suchsland, Herbert Fields, Jack Jenning, Don Fulks, Claire Jones and Woodrow Wilson.

Several other neighbors were unable to attend, but sent gifts. Following refreshments and the gift presentation, they rolled back rugs and danced.

THE FORMER MISS Patricia A. Runnells and the Oregon bridegroom were married in March at a very quiet ceremony attended only by the family, as the bride's mother is very ill.

Her father, the late Rev. Ernest P. Runnells, was a victim of a hit-and-run accident a year ago in San Francisco, while he was enroute to the hospital with an arm full of flowers for his ill wife. Recently Mrs. Runnells suffered a second stroke.

The wedding service was at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, 1601 Mary Drive, with pastor Rev. James Crothers officiating.

The bride wore a dresden blue princess dress, white accessories and a short white veil, and carried a corsage of white carnations. Her sister, Mrs. Woodrow H. Wilson served as her matron of honor, and wore a navy blue princess dress similar to the bride's, with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Woodrow H. Wilson. The bride's mother wore a powder blue suit and pink carnation corsage, and was able to attend the ceremony in a wheel chair.

THE NEW MRS. Mandeville received her nursing degree at the Beverly Hospital School of Nursing in Massachusetts, and is working at the Martinez Community Hospital, where she met her husband.

The bridegroom, son of Ralph R. Mandeville of Athena, Oregon, and the late Mrs. Mandeville, is a graduate of the University of Oregon, taught school for a while before becoming a hospital technician, and is with the Martinez Community Hospital staff.

Following the wedding a reception for the immediate family was held at the Wilson home at 1578 Ruth Drive, Gregory Gardens. The bride's brother, Lt. Ernest P. Runnells Jr. of the U. S. Army is stationed in Germany and was unable to be present.

HAPPY PLANS are being made by three members of the Flamingo Unit, Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, for a floral arrangement tea and fashion show. The big event will be May 15, from 1:30 to 4 p.m., at the Diablo Country Club. Left to right are Mesdames F. Ray Powers, 3327 Freeman Road, Walnut Creek; E. P. Lazzareschi of 401 Monticello Drive, Walnut Creek, and Kenneth P. Mogle of 3141 Rogers Avenue, Pleasant Hill.

JANET CHANTLER of 64 Davis Road, Orinda, and Jerrold Turner of Berkeley have announced their engagement to be married June 8 at the First Congregational Church of Berkeley. The engagement was made known to a small group of family and friends recently. The couple plan to live in the Bay Area after they are wed. (Photo by Milton Mann Studios)

Carol Pedersen Marries Sailor

Marriage vows were exchanged by Miss Carol Elaine Pedersen and Charles Thomas Hoffman, C.G.C. Magnolia, Yerba Buena, San Francisco, at an evening ceremony in the Walnut Creek Methodist Church March 24.

Carol, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Pedersen of 1711 Reliez Valley Road, Lafayette, is a graduate of Acalanes High School and was active in Jobs Daughters 218 Walnut Creek.

Her bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hoffman of Calexico, graduated from Montebello High School and is now serving in the Coast Guard.

Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. Philip A. Solbjor. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

She wore a floor length gown of white lace with a sweetheart neck line with long lace sleeves. Her shoulder length veil was trimmed with lace.

The bride carried a white prayer book adorned with two white orchids and stephanotis.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Jim Jameson of Oakland, whose gown was of aqua color. With her matching accessories she wore pink jewelry and carried pink carnations.

Jim Jameson, of Oakland was the best man. The only usher was Jim Waite of Pleasant Hill.

The mother of the bride wore a pink and black dress with pink accessories and wore a single lavender orchid.

Miss Nancy Hales of Reliez Valley Road took care of the bride's book.

The reception was held in Lafayette and was decorated with colorful flowers. The brides cake was two tiered and was decorated was roses and topped with the traditional bride and groom.

The bride wore a toast colored suit with white accessories as her going away outfit.

Officers Named By Lafayette Juniors Group

Mrs. Edward Allen has been elected 1956-1957 president of the Lafayette Junior Woman's Club.

Other officers for the ensuing term are Mrs. George Yorg, vice-president; Mrs. R. E. Stevens, recording secretary; Mrs. D. W. Andresen, treasurer; Mrs. Elwyn Williams, auditor; Mrs. Bruce Stringer, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Vernon Adams, parliamentarian.

AT THE ALAMEDA District Convention, held at the Lake Merritt Hotel last Friday and Saturday, the Lafayette Juniors were presented five awards:

First place award, Art Department; second in Conservation of Natural Resources! second in crafts; certificate of award for participation in General Federation projects, and Mrs. Richard Burnside, vice-president, won second place on a painting which she had submtted to be judged in the district art contest for all members.

THE SOCIAL meeting for the juniors this month will be held in the Lafayette School auditorium April 19.

Mrs. John B. Link, Penny Art chairman, is in charge of the program and has secured Robert M. Church as speaker for the evening. Church is assistant to the president and director of public information at the California College of Arts and Crafts. He was also curator at the San Francisco Museum of Art for five years.

Andersons Take Vows at Orinda Church Rites

Bouquets of spring blossoms graced the altar of the Orinda Community Church for the marriage of Margaret Anderson and George Anderson at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

A large assemblage of old friends and new witnessed a lovely ceremony officiated by the former pastor of the Community Church, Reverend Fred Morrow, who came down from Oroville to perform the wedding ceremony of the Orinda matron to the Oakland man.

Approximately a hundred guests went from the late afternoon ceremony to the Anderson home on El Toyonal for a reception following the church vows. The attractive, tall couple received felicitations amid a background of pink flowers and candles before cutting into a tall tiered wedding cake.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. McGregor, was escorted down the aisle by her father. Her short sheath gown of white lace over pink satin in the new slender silhouette held a bow of satin at the side. Her lovely headdress was a mere touch of tulle which held tiny orchids in place.

Matron of honor was Mrs. David Stepp of Berkelev who wore blue lace with a similar flower cap of orchids and tulle. Standing up for George Anderson as best man was Einar Oas of Berkeley. The bride's mother, Mrs. McGregor, wore a gown of taffeta in a soft turquoise shade with muted beige accessories.

The McGregors who came from Los Angeles for their daughter's wedding have remained on in Orinda with their granddaughters, Pamela and Ronilee, while the newlywed pair enjoy a week's holiday in Las Vegas.

Easter Seals Obtainable at WC Offices

Residents of Contra Costa County overlooked in the mailing of 1956 Easter Seals can receive them at the Easter Seal Office 1372 Main Street, Walnut Creek, Mrs. Raley Wiles, campaign chairman, announced today.

Mrs. Wiles urged all local residents not visited to call at the office and participate in the 23rd annual drive in behalf of crippled children.

"It is inevitable that some persons may be missed in such a large-scale mailing as that made this year," Mrs. Wiles said, "and that many friends of crippled children will not want to miss the opportunity to contribute funds for their services."

Don't throw trash from your car. It is against the law to be a litterbug. Keep our roads clean.

'Forward Look' Keynotes Fremont's Future Planning

"Fremont came into existence because the people of Washington Township had a dream of the kind of community they wanted," Mrs. Winifred Bendel, Councilwoman for Alameda County's newest city told members of the Contra Costa County Women's Planning Council at the Spring Luncheon in Lafayette last week.

"PLANS FOR THE development of Fremont will be based on what the people living there want the area to be like and look like in the years that lie ahead," Mrs. Bendel declared. "Realization of our planning aspirations will be possible only if democratic processes are allowed to function.

"We are going to be very bold as we plan because the city is in its infancy and we are not hampered by costly mistakes of the past. We have a clean slate to begin with and a magnificent opportunity to do a good job."

Sharing speaking honors with Mrs. Hendel was Mrs. Florence Buehler, Alameda County Planning Commissioner. "We would be greatly impressed by the petitions of large numbers of our constituents," she commented in response to queries about how much weight public officials should attach to polls and petitions.

"The right to petition is one of the oldest democratic processes," she pointed out. "I feel that the basis of Master Planning must be an expression by the people of what they desire for the future. A planning commissioner should follow the will of his constituents."

MRS. BENDEL and Mrs. Buehler formed the "Committee of 100" in Washington Township in 1954 to develop a statement of planning goals which they later presented to the Alameda County Planning Commission. The statement was worked out after hours of conferences and town hall debats. When areas of agreement had been established the people then sought ways to implement their desires.

"Incorporation was the answer for us," Mrs. Bendel said. 99 square miles of the township are included in Fremont. Agricultural lands polka-dotted by subdivisions and industrial plants fanning out from five separate villages constitute the new city.

Only Los Angeles and San Diego are larger in area than Fremont. The new city has a population of 25,000 but the predicted growth within 50 years anticipates 500,000 inhabitants.

"The vast territory was included so that a well rounded city might result," Mrs. Bendel explained. "Planning for a "balanced city" requires a large area for diversified land uses. Some villages should be kept for residential use alone, other towns will be suitable for industrial development, still others are suited as commercial hubs or farms. The people will decide what type of development they want."

Guide Dogs for Blind Group to Meet Monday

A goal of $85,000 to be raised for Guide Dogs for the Blind ,Inc., will be decided upon by volunteer workers from San Francisco and surrounding counties at the 13th annual membership drive luncheon to be held Monday at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco.

In Contra Costa County Mrs. James F. Bailey of Walnut Creek is serving as campaign chairman, with Mrs. Burke C. Hanchett of Lafayette handling publicity. Contra Costa captains are Mesdames J. W. Cottle, Pleasant Hill; J. W. London, Concord-Clayton; Richard Schutte, Orinda; Homer Maxwell, Walnut Creek; Edward Kinney, Lafayette; Joan Schumacher, Richmond; Jack Clark, Pittsburg; and Manuel Olvera, Antioch.

"We believe the most effective means of integrating our blind citizens to normal community life is through the use of a Guide Dog," declares Mrs. Bailey. "With a program supported entirely by individual memberships, the funds solicited by our volunteers will help lead many tragically handicapped persons into useful lives."

Piatigorsky and Bob Scobey Join

Cellist Gregor Piatigorsky and Rolf Liebermann's Concerto for Jazz Band and Symphony Orchestra are the novel double bill at the San Francisco Opera House this evening and Saturday.

PIATIGORSKY, taking care of the classical side of the program, performs Schumann's Concerto in A minor, while Bob Scobey's 'Frisco Jazz Band, the near-New Orleans group which has made recording history with Good Time Jazz, handles the second half of the affair.

Orchestral works in addition to the Liebermann are Fantasia by David Sheinfeld, member of the orchestra's string session, Mozart's 22nd Symphony and the Prelude and Love and Death from "Tristan and Isolde" by Wagner.

Renowned since the '20's, Piatigorsky, like many of his famed colleagues, is Russian-born. He began cello study at six, making rapid progress until, while still in his teens, he became first cellist of Moscow's Imperial Opera.

AFTER THE REVOLUTION, he went to Warsaw and established a European reputation. This led to international concert appearance. Together with recordings, radio and TV appearances, he has become almost a household word in America.

Rams, Dons, Knights Face Active Week

Ram Swim Team Makes Its Splash

The Pleasant Hill Ram paddlers have had their problems, what with no home pool of their own.

As a result, they have had to be a traveling contingent, even as to practice sessions.

Coach Art Poulin has been fortunate in having the cooperation of Las Lomas, which has given its pool for practice.

NO HOME POOL has meant no home meets, and as a result Poulin has had to fit his schedule in accordance with the times when he can get his charges into someone else's pool.

His first meet in two and a half weeks took place Wednesday when he engaged in a three-way meet with Mt. Diablo and Washington High at Concord.

Today it's a trip to Richmond, where they take to the water against Harry Ells High.

NEXT MONDAY the Ram swimmers paddle against Amador High at Pleasanton.

The Ram crew is short on experience, and the loss of their ace diver, Gary Soder, has been a blow in the point column. Gary proved to be the county's top diver when he competed in the First annual Swim Relays held recently at Las Lomas.

He has been out of competition due to a combination of sinus and ear trouble, but is expected back before too many more meets pass.

PEDESTRIAN DEATHS

Fewer pedestrians lost their lives in the United States in 1955 than in any other single year on record, says the California State Automobile Association. In California, however, the 751 toll of 1955 was an increase over the 681 total in 1954.

3 Sports Will Occupy PH Units In Events Today

It's another week of full schedule ahead for most of the high schools in the Diablo Valley Athletic circuit.

The events are as follows:

TODAY the Pleasant Hill gymnastic team meets Richmond at Concord's gym. Meet time is 3:30 p.m.

In baseball, Acalanes and Las Lomas varsities hold the limelight as they furnish the only game on tap, having been rained out on Tuesday.

A classic rivalry exists here, and the game rates a tossup. Game time: 4 p.m.

The Pleasant Hill Rams are busy, with the swimmers at Richmond in a 3:30 meet with Harry Ells High. Pick the Rams here.

THE RAM track men meet Antioch, with the Pleasant Hill oval the scene of action in a 3:15 p.m. meet.

The Rams to cop both the varsity and lightweight meets, due to a good crop of underclassmen.

TOMORROW — Las Lomas and Acalanes in El Cerrito Relays, 10 a.m.

MONDAY — The Rams waste little time getting back into action as track enters a three-way meet at Danville, with San Ramon High and Albany furnishing the opposition.

Close between the Rams and Danville in both divisions. Meet time: 3:30 p.m.

In golf, with 4 p.m. matches, it's the Rams a favorite over Pacifica at the Contra Costa Country Club.

TUESDAY — Pittsburg and Diablo open baseball league play for the week at Diablo. Tab the Devils to win on pitching power.

Pacifica comes to Acalanes, with the Dons favored.

In tennis, it's 4 p.m. matches, with Pleasant Hill at Antioch.

Pleasant Hill rates the favored role over Antioch.

Las Lomas draws the bye. All games in baseball: 4 p.m.

ACALANES SWIMMERS meet the U.C. frosh and Lowell High of San Francisco in a three-way meet at Berkeley. The frosh rate the nod but the Dons, if up to form in first place winners, could cop this 3:15 p.m. meet.

In golf, the Dons and Las Lomas take strokes at the Diablo Country Club. The Dons figure to win.

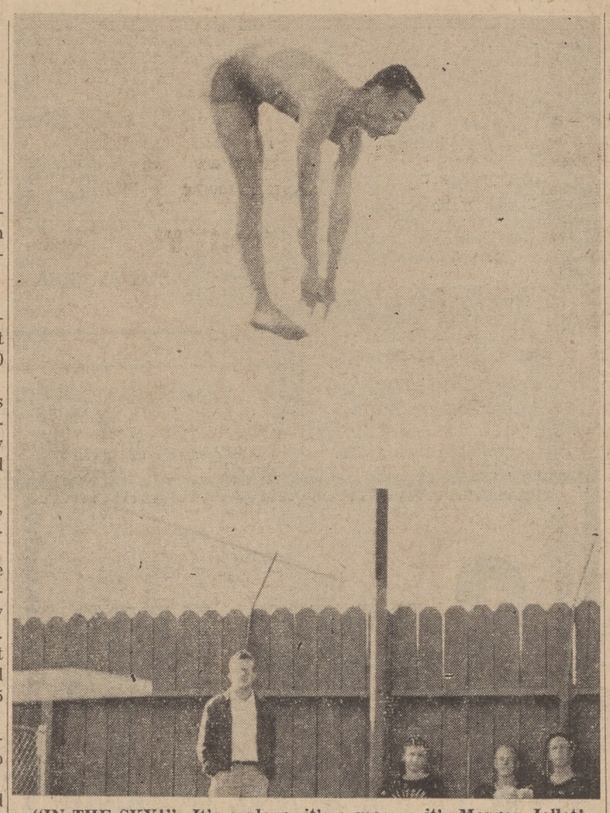

WEDNESDAY — It's track day, with 3:30 p.m. meets finding Las Lomas hosting and favorites to rack Pacifica.

Alameda meets Acalanes at Acalanes, and while the varsity meet finds Alameda the favorite, in the Bees the Dons rate no worse than an even break.

THURSDAY — In tennis and baseball it's Pleasant Hill at Diablo and Antioch at Acalanes, while baseball finds Pacifica at Las Lomas, with Pittsburg drawing the bye, to round out the day's schedule.

SATURDAY, April 21 — It's the Alhambra Relays, with Acalanes and Las Lomas taking part.

Little Dons Win, Big Dons Lose

The Acalanes trackmen met up with the Diablo Devils last Friday afternoon and while the varsity bowed to the powerful Diablo varsity the Don Bees pulled a surprise when they edged the Little Devils.

The meet, held on the Concord oval, found the Diablo varsity rolling to a 78⅓-34⅔ win.

In the Bees it was the Dons 57 1/6 to 55 5/6.

In the varsity meet the Dons copped three firsts when Larry Pilcher ran a 50.8 race in the 440 yard event, John Cadwell took the discus with a 120' 8" toss and Butch De Villers, back after an enforced layoff due to illness, came through with a 21' 8½" leap in the broad jump.

Cadwell was the Dons high point man for the meet with 6 points when he took third in the shot along with his discus win.

In the Bee meet Dave Bojarsky was the big gun for the Dons when he set new school marks while copping a pair of firsts. In the 660 yard run he stopped the clocks at 1:28.4 and sailed 19' 10½" in the broadjump.

Stu Fox was another double winner for the Dons taking the 120 yard low hurdles in 14.4, tieing a school mark, and then copping the 70 yard high barrier event in 9.6.

Diablo Devils Nod Knights 5-0

The Diablo Devils came to town April 5 and ended up by trimming the Las Lomas Knights 5-0 to take undisputed first place in league standings.

The Devils started their right handed ace Rod Atnip on the mound and he shut the Knights down with but two safe blows.

Singles by third baseman Terry Yeager and outfielder Don Ogden accounted for the Las Lomas hits.

The Devils posted a run in the second inning and added two more in the fourth.

Rod Atnip smashed a home run. The winners other two runs came in the 5th.

In the hit column the Devils had eight—along with two errors.

The Knights had one error. Atnip went all the way on the mound for Diablo while Joe Sibley and Dick Stanley shared hurling honors for the Knights with Sibley going the first four frames.

The win put Diablo all alone in the top spot and marked the first defeat for Las Lomas in league play.

County Horsemen Plan Celebration

The Contra Costa County Horsemens' Association will celebrate their twentieth anniversary tomorrow night, with a potluck dinner honoring the founder's family and past presidents of the organization.

Honored guests will include Messrs. and Mesdames Earl Sanko of Pleasant Hill; Joe Massone, Ted Albro, Ray Perry, of Walnut Creek.

Rams Whip Spartan Nine To 11-0 Tune

The Pleasant Hill Rams and the Pacifica Spartans crossed bats in a league baseball game Tuesday afternoon, and when the final out had been called the Rams had racked up an impressive 11-0 shutout win.

The game, played at Pleasant Hill in a series of showers, found the contest a 0-0 affair until the third frame, when the Pleasant Hill club found the range and scored 3 runs on a like number of hits.

Bill Nixon singled, and scored when Jim McMillin rapped a triple. Catcher Leon Lewis was on when Pacifica's third sacker overthrew first, with McMillin scoring run number 2.

Lewis went to second on the miscue and came home on Jack Ulrich's single to make it 3-0.

IN THE NEXT frame the home club scored another trio on three hits, and then, leading 6-0, really added insurance runs in the fifth, when they scored 5 runs on five hits, with the Spartans committing 4 errors to aid the Ram cause.

Coach Lyle Palmer started Mike Mayne on the mound and he went five frames, with Mike Cereda going the last two.

Mayne gave up but two hits, while Cereda gave up nary a safety.

For the visitors, Larry Kent lasted until the fatal fifth, when, with one down, he was relieved by Bob Burton. Jim Lewis went the distance behind the mark for the Rams, as did Andy Anderson for the Spartans.

Coach Palmer used 14 players in notching the win.

BILL NIXON was the big stick for the Rams, as he had three singles and a double in five times at the plate.

Teammate Jim McMillin, the Rams' four-letter man, also had a big day, with a home run and a triple, to make it 2 for 3 at bat.

He had five runs batted in and scored three times himself.

P.H., Alhambra Tracksters Tie

It doesn't happen often but it did on April 4, when the Pleasant Hill Rams and the Alhambra Bulldogs wound up in a 60½-60½ track deadlock, with John Swett of Crockett showing in third place with 19.

The Rams' big gun in the scoring column was Jim McMillin, who copped the 120-yard high hurdle event in :16.6, won the 180-yard low hurdles in :22.7 and then accounted for a second in the broad jump, which was won by Bob McLaughlin of Alhambra at 19' 7".

Other first place winners for the Rams were Mike Foshaug, who won the 100 in 10.8 and then breasted the tape in the 220 at :26 flat.

In the Bee meet Alhambra took the number 1 spot with 54 points, while John Swett had 47½ and the Ram, 33½.

In the Bees sophomore Jerry Warner of the Rams ran a fast :38.3 in the 330 for a first.

Sophomore Floyd Thompson took the Bee 660 with a 1:36 race.

Dixon Farmer Sets New Record For High Jump

Dixon Farmer, Miramonte High's great all-around freshman athlete, made the record book when he cleared 6 feet, 7/8 inch while winning the high jump event in a meet with Las Lomas at Walnut Creek April 5.

The mark is better than the county record set by John Henry Johnson of Pittsburg with a leap of 6' 3/8" back in 1947 in a meet at Acalanes.

DIXON IS a first-year man and has a good many meets before him in which to better the mark. It is all the more remarkable in that he is at present classified as a Bee, whereas Johnson's record is that of the varsity division.

Farmer also won the broad jump with 19' 9" as a top leap, to lead the Miramonte crew to a 66-46 win.

FARMER RATES a head-on favorite to cop the county title and set a new Bee mark when the meet time rolls around.

Farmer holds the Acalanes stadium record at 5' 10" for Bees while competing in an early-season meet.

He also figures to better the existing North Coast Section Bee high jump mark of 5' 9¾" set by Eurael Bell of El Cerrito in 1955.

An all-around performer, he was a standout in football and basketball, winning his letter as a regular in both sports.

Acalanes Dons Bow to Pirates

The Acalanes Dons had their troubles April 5 when they dropped a league baseball game to the Pittsburg Pirates 5-0.

Pittsburg's Rich Hernandez gave up but three hits in notching the win for the Pirates and struck out eight while Mike Barrett on the mound for the Dons gave up 9 hits and struck out 7. The Dons had 2 errors to the winners' 1.

Pittsburg scored first in the second frame when they tallied three runs on four hits and added another pair of tallies in the 6th along with two more safe blows.

Al Sutton singled in the 4th, Mike Barrett beat out an infield hit in the 3rd and Dave Bojarsky singled in the 6th to account for the Dons 'only safe blows.

Air Reservists At Ball Tonight

Air Reservists from Alameda and Contra Costa counties will hold an annual ball, tonight at the Lake Merritt Hotel in Oakland.

Air Force officers and civic officials have been invited as guests of honor at the ball, which is under sponsorship of the 9080th Air Reserve Group. Maj. Lloyd Beaver, chairman, promised that the evening will be short on speeches and long on entertainment and dancing.

Fran O'Brien, San Francisco night club and television entertainer, will be master of ceremonies for the evening.
